

Celebrate International Education Week

November 17 – 21, 2008

Monday, November 17

3:00 – 4:30pm	The Election from an International Perspective	1957 E St. NW, Room 512B	Panel of GW international students discussing international perceptions of the U.S. presidential election.
6:00 – 8:00pm	Marketing Your International Experience	Marvin Center Room 310	Utilize your experiences abroad in your resume, on your cover letter, and while networking. Panel discussion, followed by resume critiques!

Tuesday, November 18

3:00 – 4:00pm	Go to Grad School... Abroad!	1957 E St. NW, Room 512B	A conversation on international graduate school opportunities.
4:00 – 5:00pm	International Fellowship Opportunities	1957 E St. NW, Room 512B	A presentation on international funding opportunities.
6:00 – 8:00pm	SIETAR Cross-Cultural Workshop	Marvin Center Room 404	Build upon your current cross-cultural skills in this fun, interactive workshop.

Wednesday, November 19

12:00 – 1:00pm	International Potluck Lunch	1957 E St. NW 3 rd Floor Lounge	Bring your appetite and your favorite international dish to share!
3:00 – 4:30pm	C3: Cross-Cultural Dialogue Group	2127 G Street NW, Room 209	International students share about their countries and cultures. Light refreshments provided.
4:00 – 5:30pm	Working Abroad	Marvin Center Room 101	Opportunities to live and work abroad.
6:00 – 8:00pm	Elliott School Admissions Open House	1957 E St. NW, Lindner Family Commons, 6 th floor	Learn about graduate study opportunities at the Elliott School. Please RSVP to http://www.gwu.edu/~elliott/openhouse/

Thursday, November 20

1:00 – 5:00pm	Training for Standards in Emergency Education	Marvin Center Room 301	A free seminar on the INEE minimum standards, their use in the field, and policy work. Contact iep@gwu.edu for more information.
7:00 – 9:30pm	Screening of War Dance followed by Discussion	2127 G Street NW, Room 104	Come watch the documentary War Dance and join in a discussion immediately following. Light snacks provided.

Please email iea@gwu.edu with any questions

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY
WASHINGTON DC

